

On the Move

Christopher Gagic and Sally Still were named partners, and George Weinstein has become of counsel to Ward Damon Posner Pheterson & Bleau. Gagic focuses his practice on estate planning, special needs planning, multi-generational family, and business succession plans, probate and trusts, taxation, and federal estate and gift tax returns. Still focuses on employment and labor-related matters, including administrative actions, federal and state court litigation, arbitration and appeals. Weinstein concentrates on estate planning and related income, gift, and estate tax issues.
